

JAPE No. 66

Contents

Special Issue: Introduction

James Goodman and Stuart Rosewarne 5

The Challenge of Climate Change: Poverty of the Dominant Economic Narrative and Market Solutions as Subterfuge

Stuart Rosewarne 17

The Cost of a Market Solution: Examining the Garnaut Proposal for Emissions Trading

Ben Spies-Butcher 52

Weaknesses and Reform of Australia's Renewable Electricity Support

Greig Buckman 71

Strategies for Radical Climate Mitigation

Mark Diesendorf 98

Making the Choice Between Ecological Modernisation or Living Well

Ariel Salleh 118

Responding to Climate Crisis: Modernisation, Limits and Socialism

James Goodman 144

JAPE No. 66

Contents (continued)

Making a Market? Contestation and Climate Change
Rebecca Pearse	166
A Rising Tide: Linking Local and Global Climate Justice
Geoff Evans	199
The Multi-Faceted, Multi-Scaled Fight for International Climate Justice
Stephanie Long, Ellen Roberts, and Julia Dehm	222
Anthropogenic Climate Change and Cultural Crisis: An Anthropological Perspective
Linda Connor	247
Carbon Emissions: Prices and Values
Anitra Nelson	268
Anatomies of Environmental Knowledge and Resistance: Drivers of Climate Justice Movements and Waning Neoliberalism
Patrick Bond and Michael K. Dorsey	286